I have this book, it's full of linear grooves and fills. Obviously. I really like this book, I've always been a huge fan of linear drumming, you probably already know this, but as with any linear patterns, start them slow, keep playing them slow until it's muscle memory, and after a while you'll have some insanely cool sounding fills and grooves that you can do almost autonomously.

Mike Johnston's linear drumming book: has anyone used it ...

Every pattern I've seen throughout the book has asked you for four limbed independence, even if it's just asking you to keep a quarter note pulse with your left foot. For what my own opinion is worth, this book is a steal of a deal. 30 dollars is a light cost for what going through Linear Drumming by Mike Johnston has done for my drumming.
